SHARING OUR TREASURE

March 4, 2018:	$	6,941.00
Candles:	$	124.00
Pennies:	$	44.00
Attendance:		514

This "life" that is to be lost can take different forms. For alcoholics and those addicted to drugs, it means to trade their non-lives of addiction for sobriety, being clean. For us not addicted, the genius that articulated "life" by naming life's principal components; time, talent and treasure have surely served us well. If we serve ourselves and not serve others with our time, our talent, and our treasure, we fail this challenge of dying to self and bringing life to others.

When couples become parents, they seem to learn this lesson of life very quickly. With a child who is the expression of their love, they unhesitatingly give their time, their talent, and their treasure to their child.

Jesus' issue is the urgency of "his hour." The tone is set by the image of the "grain of wheat." There is no "cheap grace." Jesus must die to produce the "fruit" of the community of believers who will be united with him and form what Paul will call "the body of Christ."

BROWNIE BRIGADE!

Our Stewardship Committee has recently reached out to a local "Homeless Bus", a group which travels weekly to feed the homeless on the streets of NYC. We have decided to assist this mission in a small way by forming a "Brownie Brigade", providing homemade brownies on the first Saturday each month, beginning April 7th, as a complimentary dessert to the 300 meals already distributed weekly by these dedicated and compassionate volunteers.

If you have an interest in becoming involved with our commitment, please contact Lois Moeller at 973.696.4049. However, if you are already a member of our Parish Baking Committee, you may receive a call in the near future requesting your baking expertise! Please consider answering this call to feed the poor.

Matthew 25:40 "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you? Whatever you did for the least of my brothers, you did for me."

FEET WASHING

In His last few hours of His life, Jesus was teaching the apostles about humility and service. At the Last Supper Jesus washed the apostles' feet; a job delegated to a Gentile slave, not even a Jewish slave. He washed their feet and at the end told them to wash one another's feet... this humble act gave witness to what he expects of His followers... it showed his willingness to stoop and serve wherever the need. This profound lesson speaks of how He wants his followers to live, act and respond in life.

In keeping with this lesson, each year at the Mass of the Last Supper on Holy Thursday, twelve people from the parish have their feet washed. Often people from the various ministries are asked to participate. This year we are inviting anyone who would like to have this experience to please volunteer. If you are interested please call Sr. Ellen at 973.696.4411 x 103 and sign-up.
