In line with Jesus' cure of the deaf man in the gospel, I would like to speak a bit about relationship and spiritual deafness. Communication is absolutely necessary in relationship -- divine or human. Communication is the very life-blood of relationship. Listening is the essential partner in communicating. If someone is deaf to the other, communication stops. Eventually, relationship weakens and possibly dies. We know this from our experience.

So often, the fear, suspicion and anger found in our society creeps into our church. Deep and persistent distrust of persons, motives and viewpoints exists in the Catholic Church: between old and young, laity and clergy, rich and poor, scholars and bishops. Our American pluralism is all too often a source of divisiveness rather than richness. Some people, unfortunately, are simply not interested in conversing with someone with differing opinions. That is sad. We are familiar with the saying: no one is so blind as one who will not see; I think we can safely say, "No one is so deaf as one who will not listen."

Hearing is a physical sense of our body. Listening is a learned skill. If we hear something affirming about ourselves, we tend to listen eagerly. If we hear criticism, do we react with a knee-jerk of denial? Or, do we listen in silence and slowly and honestly evaluate the criticism?

Let's listen up!

RCIA

R.C.I.A., the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process for anyone wishing to know more about the Roman Catholic Faith and the reception of the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation). By our baptism, each of us is called to share the good news. Each of us may know someone who, if asked, would consider becoming a Catholic. The invitation needs to be extended. As a member of the faith family, have you extended the invitation? If you know someone who may be interested in being contacted by a member of the staff or the RCIA team, please call the Parish Office at 973.696.4411 x10.

LATIN MASS PILGRIMAGE AT THE CATHEDRAL OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

On the weekend of September 15th & 16th, the Christian Service Committee will be collecting for our "pajama and book" collection. These simple items give these lonely children a secure and nurturing bedtime environment. New pajama sizes can be from infant to 16 year old children. The new book will go along with the pajamas for that age child. Please keep the book and pajamas together either in a shopping bag or rubber band for ease of distribution. Thank you in advance for your generosity!

EPHESIANS: DISCOVER YOUR INHERITANCE

One of the most remarkable things about our Faith is that by God's grace, we have become his adopted sons and daughters. In your day-to-day-life, what does it mean to be a son or daughter of God – and heir to his promises and blessings? When you sit in the pews each Sunday, what does it mean to you to be a part of his family, the Church? To help you uncover this meaning, Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish will begin an 8 week class entitled Ephesians: Discover Your Inheritance on September 19th at 7 PM. For more information or to register, visit AscensionPress.com or contact Carla Trost at ministries@goodcounsel.org 973.839.2447 or Joe Manicone at joemanicone@gmail.com.
