We all recognize and accept that no one of us is perfect. That is an understatement. We also need to accept the fact that each of us is innately unique and, yes, great. But not perfect. That realization is a wonderful, life-giving truth.

We all have graces and gifts from God. These are not to be hoarded and reveled in as personal possessions, but shared. When we appreciate that this is also true of everyone else, we have neither need nor desire to exclude anyone or to feel superior. It is a perversity within our hearts to be exclusive, to feel somehow superior. Smugness is not virtuous.

Our search, our quest is to become increasingly conscious of what gifts we have been given, what we will do with them, and who we are becoming. On the flip side, unhealthy and foolish envy at what we lack is both counter-productive and unchristian.

The place of competition is to help, not hurt us. Cooperation is an end; competition, only a means. Appreciation of a diminished role of competition is certainly a hard-won victory in my personal evolution. It is surely not what the world taught us years ago.

Let us not forget the principle Jesus lays down for us in today's Gospel: "He who is not against you is for you." Our Gospel diminishes the number of those "against" us.

The cooperative life is good!

How you can help us earn money? If you have an account with Boiling Springs Savings Bank's, you can help us earn extra money. There is no fee or anything additional you need to do. R.C.I.A., the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process for anyone wishing to know more about the Roman Catholic Faith and the reception of the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation). By our baptism, each of us is called to share the good news. Each of us may know someone who, if asked, would consider becoming a Catholic. The invitation needs to be extended. As a member of the faith family, have you extended the invitation? If you know someone who may be interested in being contacted by a member of the staff or the RCIA team, please call the Parish Office at 973.696.4411 x10.

BISHOP NAVAGH COLUMBIETTES COUNCIL 5943

The Columbiettes are planning to have a Recruitment Weekend the weekend of October 20th & 21st. As Catholic women who work with the Knights of Columbus, we hope to make a difference in today's world, by befriending others and helping when needed with family, church and community. We are thankful to God for all he has given us and we take time to give to others, enjoy fun in fraternity and serve God and Country. Some of our events include: Fish and Chips Dinner, Baked Potato Night, Bingo at Little Sisters of the Poor, Altar Server Appreciation Party, Grains of Hope and Spring Flower Sale.

Special thanks to the coordinators who planned and made the Carnival possible!!! They are Robin Zanca, Jeanean Smentkowski, Monica Murphy, Bill Murphy, Matt Smentkowski & John Ris.

Our First Annual Carnival was a great success! So many families came to enjoy the delicious burgers and hotdogs and play the many games that the ministries hosted. The magician who entertained the children was an added treat. To top it all, the children's pennies at wheel of chance netted almost $20, which was then given to the pennies for the poor! What a day!
