Often, it is said, when looking for a job it is not what you know but whom you know that counts most. In China, people often speak of guanxi, "connection" with people in the right places.

Today, we see two brothers, who belong to the innermost circle of Jesus' disciples, trying to exert their guanxi. Their opening gambit seems a quite modest request: "Master, we want you to do something for us." As a question it is an opening for which we probably have fallen many times: "Could you do something for me?" Jesus is not so easily duped. He counters with another question: "What do you want me to do for you?" We should remember this question because it is going to come up again in next Sunday's Mass.

But it is also a question we should hear Jesus asking us now. Let us give the answer today and see whether we might change it in the light of next Sunday's Gospel. Our answer to the question should be very fundamental. In other words, it should go to the very root of what we want out of life.

If we just say things like money or winning a lottery, having good health, getting a good job, being successful or whatever...we will still have to say "Why?" or "What for?" I am asking for these things. In life, what do I really want? Happiness, security, peace...or something else?

How you can help us earn money? If you have an account with Boiling Springs Savings Bank's, you can help us earn extra money. There is no fee or anything additional you need to do. For more information, call Boiling Springs Bank at 973.696.7100 or visit your local Boiling Springs Savings Bank Branch at 60 Beaverbrook Road in the ShopRite Shopping Center.

PROJECT EVE

We are asking the children in the Religious Education Program to live out one of the Corporal Works of Mercy.

The children of our parish are being asked to help children in the Philippines by giving their used (laundered) summer clothing that they have out-grown but still have lots of wear left. We are looking for clothing that can be worn in the hot climate as well as footwear (shoes, sandals or sneakers) that are still good but just outgrown. We are calling this outreach 'Project Eve' as Eve is our contact person who will help distribute the goods when they arrive in the country.

Boxes will be available in the school to receive the donations. Our collection will start on Sunday, October 14th and end on Sunday, October 21st!!!! All in the parish are welcome to help add to the collection.

RCIA

R.C.I.A., the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a program for anyone wishing to know more about the Roman Catholic Faith and, especially, receiving the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation). If you know someone who may be interested in RCIA, please call the Parish Office at 973.696.4411 x10.

ONE HEART FOR HAITI

My dear friends:

In November, I will make what may very well be my last trip to Grand Vincent in Haiti.

I have addressed the educational needs of about 9,000 children over these 19 years. We now employ 37 teachers in our preschool, elementary and high schools, and of course adult education. We've build a building remodeled the old, and given the community a 300 foot deep water well. By all standards, we have been successful... But the numbers of those committed to helping us financially has diminished... Our last mailing of 300 resulted in 47 positive responses... 47 donations.

As things stand, we will most likely run out of funds mid January... At which time the 37 teachers will be terminated and our school closed.

If you have already met your commitment for this year, I thank you and ask our Lord's blessing upon you... if you have not, won't you please reconsider. I can beg but only you can fill this cup.

I thank you for the love you have shown the children of Haiti, and through them Jesus Christ.

Deacon Joe Parlapiano
